

I have been a subscriber to XM Satellite radio for the past two years. I find it patently offensive that the NAB would attempt to silence satellite radio. The NAB is so politically motivated in every thing they do that their complaints should fall on deaf ears. Satellite radio has First Amendment privileges identical to any NAB member, and should not be treated any differently, nor should they be silenced anymore that NAB members should be.